These sentences make a paragraph, but they are in the wrong order. Sort the sentences out and write them in the right order to make one good paragraph.

In fact, domestic dogs are all descended from the grey wolf.

Most of us think of dogs as pets, but across the world there are many different kinds of wild dogs.

Of all the dogs, the wolf is the best known and the most feared by man.

So that sleepy pooch, lying on the carpet at home, is a distant relative of one of the most feared creatures alive.

This includes 2 kinds of wolves, 21 kinds of foxes and four types of jackal.

So many stories and films have featured wolves as killers that the poor animal hardly stands a chance.
