

Paragraphs 3

Match the topic sentence to the rest of the paragraph.

Write the topic sentence and the rest of the sentences that match it in your book. Underline the topic sentence.

Opening sentences containing the topic

Ideas which develop the topic

I had to take my dog to the vet last week.

I knew he was ill because he wasn't eating his food. I thought I had better find out what was wrong.

My summer holidays

It gets boring after a while. terrible. I think different sports should be on. More tennis would be a good idea because lots of people like it.

The last week of the summer term is the best.

It rained all week and and was really cold. One day our tent was blown away because it was so windy.

There is too much football on TV.

The exams have finished and we all go on lots of trips. It's great because we know the summer holidays are about to start.