

Homophones 2

We use 'there' to show a place - My dog is over there.
It is also used with a verb - There is my friend.

Their means 'belonging to them' - that is their car.

They're means 'they are' - they're my friends.

Copy these sentences using the correct there, their or they're.

1. If that'sidea of a good time,crazy.
2. If was a different route,information was incorrect.
3.looking in the wrong place, it's over
4. If well behaved, I'll increasepocket money soon.
5. I'll takephotographs whenlooking this way.
6.are some ripe ones. Where? Over
7.books were too large forbags.
8.aiming to win andfairly confident.
9.sure to return to collectluggage.
10. looking forfriends up.....on that mountain over