

Homophones 3

Its means 'belonging to it' - the engine lost its power.
It's means 'it is' or 'it has'

Write out these sentences again, using its or it's.

1. Because the house is damp, going to loose value.
2. a simple game but only when you know rules.
3. My laptop has lost Internet connection so been difficult to work.
4. going to take a while but I'll let you know when finished.
5. poor service meant the hotel couldn't improve reputation.

To shows the direction 'towards' - I am going to school.
It is also used with a verb - I am going to have tea.

Too means 'also' or 'as well' - I'd like some crisps too.
It also means an excess or surplus of something - too easy.

Two always means the number 2 - I have two friends.

1. If you want fall ill, drink many milkshakes.
2. She needed attempts get it right.
3. Whenever I go see friends, she comes
4. Its far early for me do anything energetic.
5. Those directions the park aren't clear.