Dear Parents and Carers

Re: Hoax Letter Circulating on Social Media

This evening we have been made aware of a letter circulating on social media which appears to be from Ivybridge Community College regarding Year 10 attendance at the end of the examination period.

We would like to confirm that this letter has not been issued by the College. In particular, the message suggesting that some Year 10 students have been granted an optional authorised day off on Wednesday, 24 June or Thursday, 25 June is not correct.

For clarity, the College will be open as normal and all Year 10 students are expected to attend as usual unless you have been contacted directly by the College with specific arrangements.

Thank you to those who alerted us so promptly. We recognise that messages of this kind can cause understandable confusion, and we appreciate your support in checking information through official College channels. As a reminder, all formal communications will always be sent via parent/carers email and published on the College website where appropriate.

We apologise for any concern caused this evening and appreciate your continued support.

Yours faithfully

Rachel Hutchinson
Principal
