

There are a couple of weeks left to apply for up to £2,000 for musical costs via our 2020 Awards programme.

Do you know a young person aged 5-17 with bags of musical talent who's being held back due to lack of funding for musical costs? Whether they're an instrumentalist, composer, producer, or working in another creative way, Awards for Young Musicians (AYM) may be able to help.

For full details and to apply online by Monday 27 April 2020, visit www.a-y-m.org.uk.
